Dear Sir / Madam,

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 19/08/2020.

I note you seek access to the following information:

I would like you to provide me with the total number of fines issued to people who have breached quarantine rules after returning from a trip abroad (to a country not on the UK's travel exemption list) between 1/03/2020 and 14/08/2020. I would like the total sum of each fine given, and I would like the data on fines to be separated out according to the English Local Authority area in which the fine was issued.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police have issued ZERO fines in relation to persons breaching quarantine rules after returning to the UK following a trip abroad (to a country not on the UK's travel exemption list) within the time period 01/03/20 – 14/08/20.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer
Leicestershire Police
