Date 10 September 2020

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 09/09/2020.

I note you seek access to the following information:

Having read about Buddi, it would appear to require a smart phone to function. Does Leicestershire police also supply smart phones?

If so, how many and at what cost?

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

No. They do not need a Smart phone to function, as data is accessed through workstations.

There is no additional cost.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely
