Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 28/09/2020.

I note you seek access to the following information:

Please can you tell me what assistance has been given to the family of Madeleine McCann and what, if any, actions have been taken in relation to the ongoing investigation into her disappearance over the past 12 months.

This should include details of any flights and/or trips by officers between the UK and mainland Europe, specifying the destination and reason for travel.

Please can you tell me what assistance, in the form of meetings or other transfer of information, has taken place between Leicestershire Police and the German authorities in the case of suspect Christian Brueckner.

Has this individual previously been a suspect, or of interest, to Leicestershire Police, and if so can you tell me what date he came to notice as part of the investigation?

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police do not hold any information relating to your request. The information is in relation to 'Operation Grange' with the Metropolitan Police Service.
