Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 12/10/2020.

I note you seek access to the following information:

The total number of police officers and police staff caught viewing pornography while on duty from October 12, 2016 to October 12, 2020?
Of that figure, how many were officers and what were their ranks?
What disciplinary action was taken against the officers and staff?
And how many of the offences were on a work device - e.g. laptop, computer, work phone?
If possible, can you also tell me where they were caught viewing the porn - e.g. in a police station or police vehicle?
And was the porn either videos or stills?

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police have had ZERO Leicestershire Police Officers or Staff who have been caught viewing pornography whilst on duty in the time period 12/10/2016 – 12/10/2020.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer
