Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 28/10/2020.

I note you seek access to the following information:
This is a request under the Freedom of Information Act.

For each calendar year 2017, 2018 and 2019 and the period 1st January 2020 to 27th October 2020, could you tell me:

- 1) The number of reported crimes which mentioned "road rage" in the MO field of the crime report
- 2) A brief summary of each reported crime listed in your answer to question 1
- 3) The number of road traffic accidents recorded with a contributing factor of "aggressive driving" (code 601)
- 4) If it is within the time/cost limit of the FOI Act, a brief summary of the incidents listed in your answer to question 3

I look forward to your response within 20 working days.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Please see the spreadsheet attached to the Email for partial information.
With reference to the remainder of your request I can confirm, pursuant to s1(1)(a) of FOIA that this Force does hold the information you have requested.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Leicestershire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption(s) applicable to the information are as follows.

Section 12 – Cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit.

You will see from the response there are 738 occurrences in total so to provide a brief summary would require Leicestershire Police to read each report to provide the information. We have therefore provided the monthly breakdown and the statistics classification description for each calendar year.

In order to retrieve part of the information you have requested would therefore be in excess of the 18 hours specified by the Home Office as the time period for which a police force should allocate to a request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

In the Freedom of Information (Fees and Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004, the current regulatory limit which has been set by the Secretary of State for public authorities, which includes the police service, is £450 for the marginal costs which are the costs of finding, sorting, editing or redacting information and disbursements (printing, photocopying etc). The Association of Chief Police Officers have agreed a national standard of an hourly rate of £25 is to be charged for the time taken. In essence therefore, the costs equate to 18 hours work per request. It will be apparent therefore that within the time frame of 18 hours it will not be possible to extract the information to answer any of your questions.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under s12(1) as the cost of providing you with the information is above the amount to which we are legally required to respond i.e. the cost of locating and retrieving the information exceeds the "appropriate level" as stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees and Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Question 3

2017 78

2018 78

2019 57

2020 18

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer

Leicestershire Police
