Date 29 October 2020

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 28/10/2020.

I note you seek access to the following information:

Firstly, I would like data, please, on the number of staff and officers (broken down by rank) that have been permanently dismissed from the force for breaching coronavirus regulations this year.

In each instance, please provide clarity on which specific regulations they broke (not wearing a face covering, breaking a curfew, attending/hosting a mass gathering, etc)

Secondly, I would like data on the number of staff and officers (broken down by rank) that have been temporarily suspended from the force for breaching coronavirus regulations this year.

In each instance, please provide clarity on which specific regulations they broke (not wearing a face covering, breaking a curfew, attending/hosting a mass gathering, etc)

Thirdly, I would like data on the number of staff and officers (broken down by rank) that have received written warnings from the force for breaching coronavirus regulations this year.

In each instance, please provide clarity on which specific regulations they broke (not wearing a face covering, breaking a curfew, attending/hosting a mass gathering, etc)

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police have suspended, dismissed or given written warnings to ZERO Officers or Staff for breaching Coronavirus Regulations.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely
