Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 28/10/2020.

I note you seek access to the following information:

Provide me a list of all the crimes recorded where the identified victim is under the age of 18 for 2017, 2018, 2019 calendar years, with an annual breakdown.

The number of such crimes (broken down by year) that resulted in a charge over the same years, with a similar breakdown.

Could you please make sure to break down the offences into specific crimes (using the Home Office's Crime classifications- name and code- rather than your own).

I appreciate that staff and resources are limited at this time, so I appreciate your help with this.

Provide me a list of all the crimes recorded where the identified victim is over the age of 65 for 2017, 2018, 2019 calendar years, with an annual breakdown.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Please see attached spreadsheet containing information relating to your request. Please be aware that these are the number of crimes recorded where an identified victim was either under 18 or over 65, this is not the same as the number of victims in those age groups per year.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely
