Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 24/11/2020.

I note you seek access to the following information:

Between 15 April and 15 November 2020: how many closure orders did you issue to premises' within your jurisdiction which were found to be in breach of Covid-19 regulations?

Could you please give me the description of, and figures for the three most common breaches of Covid-19 regulations found in such premises'.

How many of these venues had already been fined for an earlier breach of Covid-19 regulations? What was the sum total of these earlier fines (£)?

If time and record-keeping allows, please could you specify what type of premises (for example (but not limited to), shisha lounge, pub, bar, restaurant) were issued with closure orders and how many did not subsequently comply with it (e.g. illegally continued to stay open past a certain time or hosted more people than was allowed).

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police do not hold the information you have requested. It is the responsibility of the Local Authority to close premises following a breach of the COVID regulations, therefore the information requested would be held by them.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely
