Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 06/01/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

Could you please tell me how many members of staff in your Police Force have one or more of the words equality, diversity, fairness inclusion, gender, LGBT or race in their job title?

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police have the below numbers of Staff with either the words equality, diversity, fairness inclusion, gender, LGBT or race in their job title:

Position Title	Headcount
Equality Officer	2
Head of Equality and Human Rights	1
Diversity & Inclusion Administrator	2

The above roles specifically containing equality, diversity, fairness inclusion, gender, LGBT or race within the title, does not reflect the vast number of people across the entire Force striving to support individuals and groups across Leicestershire Police. Leicestershire Police pride ourselves on our diverse workforce and the many different groups represented and supported within Leicestershire Police. As well as equality and diversity being a key value for Leicestershire Police we also have a large number of diversity champions across the Force and numerous support networks covering a large number of diversity groups.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer
