Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 22/01/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

How many complaints have been made to the force involving OnlyFans, the content subscription service, from January 1st 2016 until and including 31st December 2020. Please provide a breakdown of complaints by month and year, type of crime (e.g. child sexual exploitation, revenge porn, sextortion etc.) and age of alleged victim (aged 18 or over, or under the age of 18).

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police have recorded one Offence relating to OnlyFans in this time period. The Offence was in 2020.

Due to the low numbers of Offences meeting the requirements of your request and further information is considered exempt by virtue of Section 40(2).

Section 40 (2) – Personal Information

Section 40(2) is a class based absolute exemption and as such legislators have identified that there would be harm in disclosure and there is no requirement to evidence this or consider the public interest test. However, as Section 40(2) is engaged and in order to make the exemption absolute we need to evidence that a data protection principle would be breached by disclosure. In this case it would not be fair to process confidential information which could lead to the identification of an individual, therefore the first principle of the Data Protection Act would be breached.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely
