Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 22/01/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

I seek the following information regarding Outraging Public Decency Offences under the Home Office code 066/21 from 2015-most recent data (calendar years).

I would like to know in particular the number of offences involving couples having sexual intercourse in public places from 2015-present. I would also like to know, if possible, the location at which these incidents occurred (e.g. roadside, park etc.).

I would like this information to be presented in a table or spreadsheet, broken down to show the number of incidences each year by local area. I would then like to know, if possible, the number of offences each year sorted by location (e.g. roadside, park).

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Please find attached spreadsheet containing information relating to your request. Please note that due to a change in recording system the information is only available from 28th April 2015.

The table for 2 or more suspects/offenders is where there was a couple of people or multiple people involved in a sexual act.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer
