I write further to your request for information received 08/03/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

I would like video or a transcript of the problem solving seminar held at Leicestershire Police HQ on Friday 9th September 2016 on Operation Crucible and protecting heritage metal.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police do not hold the information you have requested. However we can confirm that this relates to a crime prevention event which was organised by the Crime prevention manager at the time. The event was to encourage forces in England and Wales to be aware of the implications around heritage crime.

The main focus was to engage with key stakeholders, crime reduction champions, academics and other groups or individuals who are interested in reducing this type of crime.

The group broke out into problem solving sessions where we tried to come up with viable solutions to activity around churches and other iconic locations.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer
