Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 10/03/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

For the three years from 1 January 2017 to 31 December 2019 how many times have officers from your force area been tasked by the Tipstaff to carry out or support the family-court ordered removal of a child or children from one parent's residence to that of the other parent.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Leicestershire Police are not tasked by Tipstaff to carry out removal of a child or children from one parent's residence to the other parent. This role would usually be undertaken by Social Services, Police would only be in attendance if there was a cause for Police attendance such as a breach of the peace. Therefore, your request should be sent to the Local Authority.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer
