Date 13 April 2021

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 16/03/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

The information I would like to know is how many, if any, police officers in the Leicestershire Constabulary have been charged with assault of a female victim, harassment of a female victim, controlling or coercive behaviour in a familial situation or sexual assault while serving in the force between the years 2015 and 2020 (that's including 2015 and 2020).

I would also like to know how many, if any, have been convicted of assault of a female victim, harassment of a female victim, controlling or coercive behaviour in a familial situation or sexual assault while serving in the force between the years 2015 and 2020 (again including 2015 and 2020).

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Between 2015-2020 Leicestershire Police recorded 2 Police Officers and 2 Special Constables who have been charged and subsequently found guilty in relation to the criteria of assault of a female victim, harassment of a female victim, controlling or coercive behaviour in a familial situation or sexual assault

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer
