

Our Ref: 001119/21

Your Ref:

Address Correspondence to: Information Management

Date 04 May 2021

Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 31/03/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

Where it states that COVID guidelines/regulations or restrictions have the force of law or legislation?

Where Public have to give out their personal details to be issued fines under COVID regulations or fear Arrest for obstruction if they do not?

As there is no mention of having to supply any personal Information in legislation by case law (Rice v Connely 1966), neither in common law.

*Primary police role is to uphold the Queens peace and enforce law/legislation. Where the Queens peace has not been breached as the definitions in the Breach of this peace is not reached by the definitions of COVID guidelines/regulations or restrictions.
Therefore how can something be enforced by you that is not in law or legislation?*

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Information relating to you request can be found on www.gov.uk for information relating to lockdown rules and the coronavirus legislation. Further information can also be found on www.legislation.gov.uk relation to the questions posed in your request.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely

Freedom of Information Officer
Leicestershire Police

Leicestershire Police in complying with their statutory duty under sections 1 and 11 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 to release the enclosed information will not breach the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988. However, the rights of the copyright owner of the enclosed information will continue to be protected by law.

Applications for the copyright owner's written permission to reproduce any part of the attached information should be addressed to The Information Manager, Leicestershire Police Headquarters, St. Johns, Enderby, Leicester LE19 2BX.