Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 01/06/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

Could you please supply data for 2020 (or the most recent available figures) regarding those detainees who, following their arrest, due to non-compliance or aggression are taken straight to the custody cell, bypassing the usual risk assessment. I am asking for; 1. Number of detainees this relates to 2. Gender 3. Ethnic identification 4. Time to compliance with the custody risk assessment

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Please see the spreadsheet attached to the Email.

In relation to Question 4, Leicestershire Police have read through the reasons why the risk assessment was not done. The officer will complete the risk assessment without the detained person when the need arises so we are unable to supply the information for that question of your request.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.
