Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information received 29/09/2021.

I note you seek access to the following information:

I am running a campaign to reveal the pickpocketing hotspots across the UK over the last five calendar years. I am wanting to determine the areas where people have fell victim to pickpocketing (stealing of money or other valuables from the victim without them noticing at the time). An outline of what I require is as follows:

- The number of pickpocketing-related crimes from all areas/locations within your authority over the last five calendar years (2015 - 2021, if you hold 2021 crimes), per year for each policing district/council area.*

Please, can you provide all of the required information in the form of an excel document, split per year, per area.

If it is not possible to provide the information requested due to the information exceeding the cost of compliance limits identified in Section 12, please provide advice and assistance, under the Section 16 obligations of the Act, as to how I can refine my request.

If you can identify any ways that my request could be refined I would be grateful for any further advice and assistance.

Following receipt of your request, searches were conducted within Leicestershire Police to locate information relevant to your request.

Your request for information has now been considered and the information asked for is as follows: -

Please see the spreadsheet attached to the Email

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.
