Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write in connection with your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA), received on 16/10/2023 in which you requested the following information:

Police complaints Statistics for England and Wales 2022/23 (Experimental statistics)

'Table 14: Means by which allegations were finalised in 2022/23'
reveals that:

170 allegations (7%) relating to Leicestershire Constabulary finalised 'Under Schedule 3 - investigated'

'Table 16: Allegations finalised by investigation under Schedule 3 in 2022/23'
reveals that:

142 were 'Investigated (not subject to special procedures)'
and that:

28 were 'Investigated (subject to special procedures)'.

Please provide brief details of each of the 28 allegations in the latter category and the outcome of your investigations.

I can confirm, pursuant to s1(1)(a) of FOIA that this Force does hold the information you have requested.

Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 requires Leicestershire Police, when refusing to provide such information (because the information is exempt) to provide you the applicant with a notice which: (a) states that fact, (b) specifies the exemption in question and (c) states (if that would not otherwise be apparent) why the exemption applies.

The exemption(s) applicable to the information are as follows.

Section 12 – Cost of compliance exceeds appropriate limit.

Section 12 of the act does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information should the authority estimate that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit.

Due to the way that the Professional Standards complaints systems are configured, we have no way to be able to readily locate and retrieve the cases which were sent to the IOPC as part of this report. The only option for data retrieval would be to complete a manual review of every complaint for 2022/23 to establish which ones were ultimately finalised by investigation and subject to special procedures. Given the number of complaints for a full year, to retrieve the information you have requested would therefore be in excess of the 18 hours specified by the Home Office as the time period for which a police force should allocate to a request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

In the Freedom of Information (Fees and Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004, the current regulatory limit which has been set by the Secretary of State for public authorities, which includes the police service, is £450 for the marginal costs which are the costs of finding, sorting, editing or redacting information and disbursements (printing, photocopying etc). The Association of Chief Police Officers have agreed a national standard of an hourly rate of £25 is to be charged for the time taken. In essence therefore, the costs equate to 18 hours work per request. It will be apparent therefore that within the time frame of 18 hours it will not be possible to extract the information to answer any of your questions.

In accordance with the Freedom of Information Act 2000, this letter acts as a Refusal Notice under s12(1) as the cost of providing you with the information is above the amount to which we are legally required to respond i.e. the cost of locating and retrieving the information exceeds the "appropriate level" as stated in the Freedom of Information (Fees and Appropriate Limit) Regulations 2004.

Leicestershire Police provides you the right to ask for a re-examination of your request under its review procedure. Letters should be addressed to the Information Manager, Corporate Services Department at the above address. If you decide to request such a review and having followed the Force's full process you are still dissatisfied, then you have the right to direct your comments to the Information Commissioner who will give it consideration.

Yours sincerely,

Freedom of Information Officer
Leicestershire Police
